Cherry Creek Arts Festival Announces Departure of President and CEO Terry Adams

Adams Celebrates 14 Years of Service with CCAF

DENVER, CO (February 13, 2015) - The Cherry Creek Arts Festival (CCAF) board of directors announces that President and CEO Terry Adams has accepted a new position and congratulates Adams on 14 successful years of service to the organization.

“We are extremely proud of the robust and growing state of the arts festival; these successes are due to Terry’s leadership of the board of directors, staff, sponsors, volunteers and art community for the last 14 years. While we are saddened by his departure, we are excited for Terry’s next endeavors and wish him tremendous success,” said CCAF Board Chair Stacia Freimuth.

“I have never considered this a job, but more a part of my life that has given me great joy for so many years. It has been a rewarding journey for me, and I will always hold CCAF in a very special place in my heart,” said Adams. “I have accepted a position as vice president for advancement for Up With People, and I will continue my support of CCAF as a patron and loyal supporter for years to come.”

The board of directors is conducting a national search for the Cherry Creek Arts Festival’s next leadership.

The 25th Anniversary Cherry Creek Arts Festival will take place July 3, 4 and 5 and is presented by Janus, Arrow Electronics and Toyota.

Cherry Creek Arts Festival

The CCAF is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit art services organization whose mission is to provide access to a broad array of arts experiences and support arts education in Colorado. Along with the annual arts festival, CCAF fulfills its year-round art education and outreach mission through programs including the Mobile Art Gallery, Artist in Residence programs and the Janus Student Art Buying Program.. CCAF has produced its signature cultural event for Colorado annually during the 4th of July weekend since 1991. The arts festival weekend is a world-class and award-winning celebration of the visual, culinary and performing arts, and enjoys an attendance of 350,000 visitors over the three-day event. CCAF gives patrons the FREE, rare and special opportunity to meet and talk with international visual artists, sample fine cuisine, visit special exhibits, and entertain their families with interactive “Activities” and exciting performing arts.
